Before the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Himachal Pradesh

CASE No. 29/77

Shri Shanti Parkash Vs. M/s Jubilee Highways Transport Private Limited, Head Office Dharamsala.

AWARD

Shri Shanti Parkash was employed as a Conductor by the Jubilee Highways Transport Private Limited, Dharamsala. His services were terminated on 18-4-76 by the Managing Director. He challenged the termination of his services and a reference was made to this Court under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act vide notification dated 11-4-1977.

Both the parties have appeared in this Court, the Petitioner contends that his services were terminated without any show cause notice or without holding any inquiry and as such the termination is invalid and unlawful. According to him, he was drawing Rs. 242 per month and he is entitled to the back wages at this scale.

The respondent company contested their claim and in their reply it was alleged that the services of the Petitioner were not terminated. But he had abandoned voluntarily his job. It is further stated that the Petitioner was not entitled to claim any relief claimed by him.

From the averments of the parties, the following issues arose and were framed:—

1. Whether the demand notice has been served on the respondent. If so, its effect? (O.P.P.)
2. Whether the reference dated 11-4-1977 is illegal. (O.P.R.)
3. Whether the Petitioner has voluntarily abandoned the services. If so, its effects? (O.P.R.)
4. Relief.

The Petitioner has closed his evidence and various dates have been fixed for the evidence of the Respondent. The respondent had not led any evidences inspite of various adjournments being granted to him.

The parties have arrived at a compromise. I have recorded the statements of the parties. I am satisfied that the parties arrived at a lawful compromise. In view of the compromise the order terminating the services of the Petitioner is set aside as being illegal and invalid. The Petitioner will be deemed to be in service. However for his back wages, he will be paid only a sum of Rs. 4,000/-. The remaining claim for the back wages will be deemed to have been given up. The respondent would pay a sum of Rs. 4,000/- back wages and other claims for the period during which the Petitioner remained out of service. The Petitioner will recover this amount of Rs. 4,000/- in accordance with law, if the same is not paid within the stipulated period of two months.

The Petitioner will report for duty within two months failing which his claim for employment by the respondent company will also be deemed to have been given up. This reference is answered accordingly. No order as to costs.

Announced on 3rd March, 1983.

Before the Presiding Officer, Labour Court Camp at Dharamsala.

CASE No. 1/80

Krishan Singh Vs. M's Prem Bus Service, Nagrota Bagwan.

AWARD

This reference has been received vide notification dated 10-1-1980. The parties have put in their claims. From the pleas of the parties the following issues have been arose on 11-7-1981:—

1. Whether the applicant's services were terminated illegally after he had worked for fourteen days in February, 1978 and for 12 days in March, 1978. (D.P.P.)
2. Whether the applicant himself absented and did not turn up for duty with the respondent? (D.P.R.)
3. Whether the applicant was working as driver after leaving respondent's service in March, 1978 with New Snow View Transport Company and New Palampur Dhar Transport Co-operative Society? If so, what effect? (D.P.R.)
4. To what relief the applicant is entitled?

Both the parties have led evidences. I have heard the parties. The Petitioner himself has appeared as PW-1 as his own witness and has admitted in cross-examination that he had attained the age of 58 years in March, 1978.

The Petitioner has made a statement that he does not press his claim for re-employment. He does not challenge the order of the termination of his services. He, however, wants to file a fresh claim.

In view of the circumstances of this case and the statement of the Petitioner himself, the order of the termination of services cannot be held to be invalid, illegal and unjustified and as such it is not liable to be set aside. In spite of the termination of his services, the Petitioner may be entitled to certain service benefits. He may if he is advised, agitate his claim. This award cannot effect the other claim which might be legally allowed to him. No order as to costs.

The reference is answered accordingly.
